

Prof Amna Dirar, Ahfad University and President of the Beja Congress for political coordination of interests of the Beja in East Sudan (right) and Prof. A. Lobale, Juba University, Khartoum Campus.

Researchers and students listen to Prof Dr Karl Wohlmuth, University of Bremen who elaborates on the research schedule and on the expectations of the partner universities.

Prof A. Lobale, Juba University, Khartoum Campus (left) and Prof Amna Dirar, Ahfad University.

The project coordinators Dr Grawert, University Bremen (left) and Prof Kassahun, Addis Ababa University and member of the IGAD Commission for the settlement of the border disputes between North and South Sudan.

Prof. S. Wassara, UNICEF/Juba University gives information about the situation in the field research areas.

Some of the selected researchers and students.

The Development Studies and Research Institute (DSRI) where the researchers and students will be trained before starting their field research in South Sudan and Kordofan.

Research applicants wait to present their research concepts.